“The History of a famous chocolate company”

The name “Hershey” is known throughout the world. Milton Hershey died in 1945, but the chocolate factory and Hershey’s chocolate continues to be made in Hersey, Pennsylvania.

He learned to make caramels and to expand the kinds of candy he made. When he was 29-years-old, he moved back to Pennsylvania to start a caramel business, and in four years his business was very successful.

After seeing how chocolate was made at a chocolate convention, Milton purchased the equipment needed to make similar chocolates. He got married and sold the

He focused his factory on the “nickel bar”, a chocolate bar that everyone could afford. He then added Hershey Kisses and Hershey’s with Almonds.

As success and profits rose, he expanded his town to add a sports arena, a stadium, and a school to learn how to make chocolate. The school was for orphaned children, and when his wife died, Milton took all of his money ($60 million dollars) and gave it to the school to help these children.

He also made a foundation which is an organization that gives money to people who need it. His foundation is designed to help people get an education.
